Letters from the Interior of the State.

(FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT.)

CORVALLIS, Nov. 4, 1867.

The breadth of fall sown wheat is small throughout the State, perhaps considerably less than usual, but what there is looks very promising. It is generally conceded that fall sown wheat is less liable to be affected by drouth, &c., and is, therefore, the surest crop for all seasons. And yet it is never very extensively sown, (particularly in the great prairies) on account of the depredations of wild geese, which come in countless numbers to feed upon the fields. They often destroy whole fields. Farmers have to keep sentinels in the fields during the day to keep them off, and even then they alight in the night and do great damage. Some farmers prevent them from alighting in the night by planting sticks or poles, eight or ten feet high, a rod or so apart over the field. As they descend, they come down with a long slant, and not being able to see these stakes in the darkness, come in contact with them, and abandon their purpose and fly away. These stakes are pulled up in the spring and put away for the next crop, and so may be used several years.

Much of our prairie land is too flat to be well adapted to the cultivation of winter wheat without a system of thorough draining—"under draining," such as is used in the older States. It is an expensive operation, but when accomplished, it doubles the value of those low, wet lands.

A great part of the Albany prairie extending from the Santiam to the McKenzie, is very flat, but has sufficient descent for easy and thorough draining. It contains an area nearly half as large as the State of Rhode Island, and if it was thoroughly drained and put into the highest state of cultivation, would almost produce bread enough for a nation. A great part of the country between Eugene and Corvallis on the west side of the river is quite low and flat, a considerable part of which will remain almost worthless until it is drained. During the great flood of 1862 much of this land was overflowed, and the river, in some places was near 20 miles in width. This land is generally very rich, and shows unmistakable evidence that it has at some time been the bed of the river. In digging wells large logs, sticks and leaves are found many feet below the surface. The in Linn county is now in session. And it is a noteworthy fact that 26 out of the 31 jurors drawn were Democrats, and the most of them are of the Long Tom stripe. At the recent court in Linn county the same was the case; there were but 5 Union men drawn out of the 31 jurors. It must be remembered that the county officers in these counties are Democratic. Not long since a vote was taken among the convicts in the Penitentiary of this State, which showed that about nineteen twentieths of them were Democrats. A Democrat explained that, by saying that the Republican counties would not convict any but Democrats. They cannot now make that sort of a plea, should there be any convictions in these courts. And as yet, I have heard of no Democratic convicts. The a Democratic member of the late Legislature from Lane county, was indicted for arson. It seems the Hon. J. E. P. Withers was desirous of buying a piece of land of a neighbor, but was unwilling to pay the the price asked. Another party was about to make the purchase, when suddenly the house upon said land took fire and was burned down. The house was unoccupied at the time. Well, now, just because it so happened that the track of the horse that was ridden up and hitched to the fence near the said house on the night of its burning was just exactly the size and shape of the track of a horse owned by Mr. Withers; and merely because a part of the plate had been broken off from the heel of one of Mr. Withers' boots, and because the boots made tracks precisely the size and shape made of those worn by the person who walked from the horse to the house and back to the horse; and because, after this similarity of tracks had caused some remarks, Mr. Withers bought himself a new pair of boots; and because his old ones were found, with the broken plated heel cut off, and placed where it would not be found; and simply because he, Mr. W., soon after disappeared from the county and was seen elsewhere under the assumed name of Mr. Tompkins; and on account of a few other trifling circumstances like these, therefore, he, the Hon. J. E. Withers, was accused of burning the house! Now, had it been a man from the humbler grade of society, or a person of doubtful character, there might have been a great deal of plausibility in the accusation. But, to accuse him, the favorite of classic Long Tom, and the representative of the Lane county Democracy, of such an atrocious crime, is simply preposterous! No! It was proven before the Court that he was an honorable man—a high-minded gentleman and a person of good character. Besides, everybody knew the Hon. Mr. Withers. How could he do so unkind a thing!

But lucky it was for this unfortunate gentleman that he was tried before a jury of twelve of his partisan friends, many of whom were from the sluggish shores of Long Tom—true as steel. True it was that the circumstantial evidence was frightfully against him; that the tracks, &c., bore a particular and striking exactness. But how easy it is for the tracks of two men to be exactly alike; and what if a high-minded and honorable gentleman should leave home when a painful and disagreeable subject in regard to himself is agitated? Has not he a right to do so? &c. Eleven out of the twelve jurymen saw it in this light, and were for acquittal. But one stupid, obstinate fellow hung out against him, and would not agree. So the jury were dismissed and a new one ordered from the remote parts of the county. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Withers will be so fortunate as to get another jury of equal clearness of sight, and acuteness of judgment. He probably will, for I am told that a prominent Democratic member of the bar said, "The Republicans are anxious to see Withers convicted, but the Democratic party will throw a shield around him as strong as hell!"

LANCASTER

Is a little town about 12 miles north of Eugene, standing in the midst of a beautiful country; but at present, she is rather unfortunate. She is in the schedule of post offices of the daily overland mail route, but the stage passes by her a mile or two on the right, and her mail is left at a farm house. Sometimes she gets her mail and sometimes she does not. It ought to be corrected, for it is just as near for the stage to go through Lancaster as to go around her. To add to her misfortunes the river has shifted its channel and left her without a landing.

P. W. G.

LETTER FROM THAD. STEVENS.—The following letter from the Hon. Thad. Stevens is published:

SEPTEMBER 21st, 1867.

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your inquiry "What effect the success of the President's views will have on the national securities?" I am of opinion that its effect would be very injurious. The President contends that the body of men acting as Congress has no Constitutional powers, and can do no valid acts in the absence of the excluded States. The Congresses that authorized the war debt, and laid the internal duties to pay it, were composed of precisely the same number of representatives, from the same States, as the present. If it should be decided that these Congresses had no Constitutional existence, the 5-20s, 10-40s, 7-30s and the legal tender greenbacks will have been issued without authority, and will be worthless. Whether they would ever be redeemed would depend on what the President would consider a Constitutional Congress, after the admission of the rebel representatives, when the condition of the debt of both belligerents would be considered.

Yours, truly, THADDEUS STEVENS.

ONE OF THE "BRETHREN."—As Beauregard will probably be soon re-established as one of our "dear Southern Brethren," the following recommendation re produced by the New Orleans Republican, will possess new interest:

"CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 13, 1862.

"Hon. Wm. P. Miles, Richmond, Va.:

"Has the bill for the execution of Abolition prisoners, after January next, been passed? Do it, and England will be stirred into action. It is high time to proclaim the blank flag after that period. Let the execution be with the garrote."

"P. T. G. BEAUREGARD."

DEMOCRATIC RESPECT FOR ITS DEAD CHIEFS.—The Chicago Tribune has the annexed appropriate and timely article:

The Chicago Times brings the charge against the Republicans that "the attempt to erect a monument to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, befitting his party life and services, has proved abortive. Radicalism had neither time nor money to expend in commemorating the services of dead men."

It is false that the effort to raise funds to erect a monument has "proved abortive." A large sum has been contributed, but not yet enough to build the grand monument it is proposed to rear; but the necessary means will surely be procured, and the finest column ever raised on this Continent will mark the place where the ashes of the great martyr of liberty repose.

But we are tauntingly told that "Radicalism has neither time nor money to expend in commemorating the services of dead men." Pray tell us how much money Copperheadism has expended in the erection of monuments to perpetuate the memory of its departed leaders? Jackson was the founder and great chief of the Democratic party. He called it into existence; organized it and led it on to victory. Will the Copperhead concern inform us what sum its party has expended to "commemorate the party life and services" of the dead Jackson? Where have his followers erected his monument, and how far does it pierce the heavens? Van Buren was the second Democratic President. Where has his party erected his monument? Van Buren invented the Caucus Convention system of making party nominations, and every Democratic demagogue who ever obtained an office by means of that system is in gratitude bound to contribute a stone to the column. How many have done so? And there is Calhoun, the author of the Democratic political creed of State sovereignty and the right of secession. Where have the Democrats built his monument? And the "strict construction," hard money leader, Tom Benton, is dead. Has his party reared a granite shaft to the memory of Old Bullion? And there is James K. Polk, dead and gone chief of the party for four years. His bones lie neglected and forgotten by the ungrateful Democratic spoilsmen who fed and fattened on his official bounty. And there is John Tyler, too, who rendered great services for the Democratic party, giving them possession of the Government and loaves and fishes of office after the people had voted them out. What monument has been built in honor of his party services by those who ate his bread and butter? And Lewis Cass, who sacrificed himself to office for fifty years to serve his party, and broke his sword on a stump rather than give it whole to a red-coat—what has Democracy done in the way of piling up stone to commemorate the deeds of this mighty Democratic barnacle? Passing over a long array of "dear lights, we come to the "Little Giant," the greatest of all the "Democrats" after Jackson. He has been dead well nigh seven years. He was the idol of Democracy, the embodiment of its principles, the focus of its hopes and the great luminary of its political system. His remains are deposited in the midst of his most devoted followers. For more than six years we have heard about his monument and seen lithographic plans of the same. We have read appeal after appeal to his devoted, admiring Democratic followers to contribute to the monument fund. The hat has been passed around a hundred times and returned empty. Scarcely money enough has been raised to lay the corner stone and foundation, the expense of which, by the way, was mainly contributed by the political opponents of the "little Giant." And the widow of this great Democratic chieftain was left penniless. Where were those Democrats in the days of her desolation and poverty who had previously courted her influence and received favors from her husband? A Republican Legislature constituted her heir to her support $25,000, under the guise of buying a spot of ground for the tomb of the great Democratic leader to rest in. In his life-time Douglas was surrounded by a servile crowd of Democratic demagogues, who looked to him as the "coming man" and dispenser of largesse and spoils. And his wife—what court was paid to her; how her levees were thronged and her influence sought; how they both were flattered and fawned upon by those butterfly friends who basked in their sunshine; and how heartlessly and promptly the stricken widow was deserted by the whole crowd, selfish, servile pack the moment the body of her husband was laid in the ground. Nearly seven years have elapsed, and the monument of Douglas has only reached its corner stone—put there by Republican money; his remains in the earth, bought and paid for by the Republican party; and his widow was placed beyond want by the Republican party. And yet an organ of the Democracy has the brazen hardihood to prate about Republican lack of respect to the memory of Lincoln and failure to contribute to the support of his widow.

PETROLEUM FUEL FOR THE PACIFIC RAILROAD. The discovery of the availability of petroleum for fuel, says the New York Commercial Advertiser, removes one of the most serious difficulties in relation to the Pacific Railroad, now rapidly approaching completion. For a distance of nearly 800 miles between the Sierra Nevada mountains and the Salt Lake there is an entire absence of coal and wood. The cost and trouble of transporting fuel for the use of locomotives over so vast a stretch of country, constitutes one of the most serious drawbacks to the usefulness of the new line. But the discovery of the availability of hydro carbon oils as fuel supplies the deficiency. The oil can be transported at a comparatively trifling cost, and, perhaps, may be obtained in the vicinity of the line of railroad. It can be adapted for the use of locomotives as well as steam and fire engines. This will effect an immense saving, of which the public will reap the advantage in reduced fares and transportation. Two barrels of oil will go as far as one ton of coal.

An ordinary locomotive consumes, on an average, four tons of coal in twelve hours. The discovery of the availability of petroleum for fuel seems almost providential, in view of the vast track of wilderness traversed by the Pacific Railroad. A pound of oil will produce more than double the quantity of steam produced by a pound of coal. This constitutes an immense saving in bulk as well as money.

Experiments were recently made by the Hudson River Railroad to test the advantage of petroleum. A blunder occurred on the part of the operators, which led to the postponement of the experiments, but the indications so far were favorable to more successful results. On a Pennsylvania railroad a locomotive was run by oil fuel for some time, and was suspended only in consequence of defective mechanical appliances for the consumption of oil. The experiments are not yet sufficiently advanced to determine the exact mechanical requirements necessary for this purpose, but it may be as necessary to construct engines for the consumption of petroleum as for the use of coal and wood.

PUBLISHING PRIVATE LETTERS.—The witnesses of the President in publishing private letters provokes even his friends, one after another, to speak out in condemnation. The highly conservative Evening Express has the following on this subject:

The Tribune's Washington correspondent states that the President has avowed his purpose "to give for publication the private and confidential letters that have been written to him within the last year from prominent Republicans complimenting and indorsing him." We question this statement, but, if true, such is utterly indefensible. There has been too much invasion of the sanctuary of private correspondence. We do not know who gave for publication Greeley's letter indorsing General Sickles, but we know the act is utterly unjustifiable. Knaves, it is true, may talk over and write another, and their duplicity ought, if possible, to be exposed, but not by publishing private letters. Our public life has elements enough of meanness without introducing this indescribable baseness. We are not among those who think that one mean act justifies another, and the whole foundation of confidence would be uprooted if the practice of publishing private letters is to be countenanced.

There is a phrenologist who can tell the contents of a barrel by examining its head.

One Mary Pyle has been fined $18 87½, at Philadelphia, for being a common scold.

A Richmond girl having recited 1,500 verses of Scripture, has died of brain fever.

The Mountaineer has an article informing all who are in want of h[illegible] where they can find them. We quote:

We call the attention of all such to the fertile valleys lying east of the Cascades, along the John Day's river and its tributaries, and to the thousands of acres in the Harney Lake country, well adapted for agricultural purposes. During the last two or three years a number of claims have been taken in this section, but there is still a large amount of desirable land, that is open for settlement. On John Day, there is a valley called Lone Rock valley, of surpassing loveliness, and fertility of soil, in which very many valuable claims can be taken. On the north side of the Columbia river there are several fine valleys that have thus far almost escaped the attention of those who are in search of homes. The Klickitat valley, north of the Dalles [illegible], offers many inducements to settlers. It has a rich fertile soil, an abundance of pure water, and from its proximity to river communication, makes it a desirable location for the farmer and stock grower. Still farther north lies the Yakima country, whose virgin soil is freely open to all those who have the means to reclaim it. In this valley there are [illegible] of acres of the very best of land, that waits for, and invites settlement by settlers. Its climate is at all times mild and pleasant, and while winter is there does not [illegible] than in any other portion of the upper country. During the severe cold winter of sixty-one and two, when cattle were dying by thousands from hunger and cold, all over the upper country, those who had their stock in this valley, [illegible] with scarcely any perceptible loss.

MORE BRAGGART.—The Register has the following:

Sheriff Thos. F. Floyd, of Josephine county, brought down by stage yesterday, Tuesday, to the Penitentiary, two convicts "penned up" for the crime of larceny. One is a Chinaman, sent for one year, the other is the famous Hector, of exploits in Jacksonville and Josephine we have noticed heretofore. He is in for three years. John Chinaman was "cut out and [illegible] regulation. On being sent to the "Pen" he said to his custodian, "Mr. Floyd, why you cut off my cue? You no let Chinaman, Chinaman [illegible] The [illegible] of the [illegible] Johnny [illegible] spirit.

Democratic Financial Ideas

The overwhelming evidence which has been produced by the OREGONIAN, showing the unconstitutionality of the taxation of Government securities by the States, has effectually silenced the Copperhead press of Oregon on this point The subject on which they were making their loudest appeals to ignorance and prejudice will serve them for that purpose no longer Their occupation in this particular line is gone. The subject which has inspired a countless number of prolix and indignant editorials, is, when fairly examined, as unsubstantial as the baseless fabric of a vision But though it is now conceded that States cannot tax the bonds, it is argued that the power of taxing them must reside somewhere, and taxed they must be It is suggested by many wise ones of the Democratic press that Congress has power to tax them, and it is urged that this power ought to be exercised Here is another proposition which is a miracle of financial acuteness The Government is urged to tax its own power to raise money, to borrow money and lay a tax upon the securities which are the evidences of its indebtedness, to offer its bonds in the market, subject to a tax imposed by itself, to transfer money from one fund, or pocket, to another, and charge itself with the cost of transaction! As no idea can be too absurd to obtain countenance and support, so this proposition, ridiculous as it is, finds no small number of advocates Of course it never occurred to them that, by just how large a tax they would have the Government lay upon its bonds, by just so much would the value of the bonds be reduced when offered in market Should the Government offer its bonds for sale subject to such tax, their value, it is almost as idle to say, would be diminished just in proportion to the rate of such taxation The Government would then diminish the value of its own securities to the full extent of the revenue which would be derived from the proposed taxation, and the principal result of the whole scheme would be the expense consequent upon the transaction. The whole idea amounts to a proposition to rob one fund to pay another, adding the cost of the transfer. But the proposition is too preposterous for discussion. Even a Democratic Congress would not act upon so absurd an idea He who would propose in Congress that the Government should impede and burden its own constitutional power to raise money, would be deemed fitter for an insane asylum than for the Congress of the United States. No Congress has ever yet suggested such a project, and no one will ever have the hardihood to provoke the derision with which such a proposition would be received by intelligent men of every party.

This idea that the Government ought to tax its own bonds is maintained by the Umatilla Press Equally intelligent on the subject of finance is the Albany Democrat. That paper says it "never did see why it was that Chase, and a Mongrel Congress were not content to issue greenbacks as they do and which bore no interest instead of running to bonds, which bore from six to eight per cent interest, and even more, according to the price of gold." Here indeed is a mystery. Why did not Chase issue twenty five hundred millions in greenbacks instead of one-fifth of that amount? When the five hundred millions had been issued, the bonds were worth sixty cents on the dollar; how much would they have been worth had five times this amount of worthless paper been issued? As the value would have diminished in inverse ratio as the circulating was increased, they would have been worth about as much as the rags of which they were manufactured. With such a currency it would have been as easy to carry on the war as it was to pay it. A war material in revolutionary times with cents for money. Already there was too much currency afloat and the only way which the Government had to get money (money which would have a purchasing power) was to issue bonds bearing interest in gold. What the Democrat says is a mystery is therefore too appalling to require any elucidation It is worthy of note that the Democratic party with its views utterly opposed to all issues of greenbacks are now grumbling because so few greenbacks were not issued, and have even gone so far as to say that a renewed issue of greenbacks shall be printed for the purpose of "paying" the national debt. Such financial ideas as this are worthy of those who are foolish enough to hold the belief that there is a "gold monopoly" unless the blacks are kept down by special legislation

The San Francisco Alta has received the task of a mast 91 feet, twelve feet long, brought from the Mt. of Fishing sea by the Rhoda Overland party, having been purchased from the Indians for a trifle. The party found an immense straight tree upright in the frozen ground on a mountain but could not dig it out, and report seeing it in the mountains in that territory

The Marquis of the Lafayette Courier in addressing a party whom he hopes to proselyte, says "On all policies you to endorse this as a white man's government." Hadn't the Courier men better be a little careful about advocating a party that is composed almost entirely of negroes?

The author of the rebel song, "My Maryland," is James Ryder Randall, late assistant editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist He was born at Baltimore, January 1, 1839, and was connected with the New Orleans Delta at the outbreak of the war.

MOBILE Nov 5 —The Reconstruction Convention has met There are 14 colored delegates present A white President was elected also a white Secretary but a colored door keeper

Virginia Legislature

RICHMOND Nov 6 —Gen Sheridan directs the Virginia Legislature not to meet this winter

Washington News.

WASHINGTON Nov 5 —Secretary Welles is very ill Seward says the statement respecting the Danish West Indies is premature It appears that negotiations have been pending but nothing definite has been received

WASHINGTON Nov 6 —Secretary Welles is recovering

Elections Returns in Detail

BOSTON Nov 5 —Returns indicate the election of the Republican State ticket by a handsome majority in Massachusetts The Republican State ticket is elected by 20 000 to 30 000 Two-thirds of the Legislature favor the liquor license law Both branches of the Legislature are strongly Republican Several shooting affrays occurred to-day on account of the election in the several wards The Democrats gain 8 000

CHICAGO Nov 6 —The election returns are very scattering The following are probably correct New York city gives 60 000 Democratic majority Brooklyn, 13,000 The State has gone Democratic by 15 000

NEW YORK, Nov 6 —Both branches of the Legislature are probably Democratic though there is some possibility that the Republicans may have the House

CHICAGO Nov 6 —In Illinois there were only county elections The vote is light, but shows Republican majorities generally diminished Chicago gives a Republican majority of 4,000

CHICAGO, Nov 6 —From Minnesota the returns are very meagre The Republicans have probably carried the State by a diminished majority Negro suffrage is defeated

CHICAGO, Nov 6 —The Republican State ticket is elected, by from 5,000 to 10 000 majority

CHICAGO, Nov 6.—In Kansas the female suffrage and negro suffrage are defeated by from 8 000 to 10,000 Female suffrage ran ahead of the negro's

BALTIMORE, Nov 6 —The returns come in slowly with indications that every official position will be filled by Democrats

BOSTON, Nov 6 —200 towns put Bullock a majority at 21 000

NEW YORK Nov 6 —Alexander W Bradford former Surrogate of this county died of typhoid fever

The Democratic majority in this State will doubtless be 50,000

The Tribune, Times, Post and Commercial mutually criminate each other for the cause of the Republican defeat The latter paper thinks that all will be right next year The Albany Argus claims a majority in the Assembly of 15, and of 12 Senators. O Brien (Tammany) is elected Sheriff of New York by only 680 majority over Connolly, the Republican nominee.

CHICAGO, Nov 6 —Returns from Minnesota indicate the probable election of Marshall, Republican by 4 000 Negro suffrage is probably defeated, though the State is close.

Alabama and South Carolina Conventions

MONTGOMERY Ala., Nov 6 —An ordinance has been introduced in the Convention to restore all the property sold during the war by the administrator for Confederate currency, to the legal heir of the estate without a suit in Court The State Constitution will probably be modeled after the Vermont Constitution

COLUMBIA, Nov 6 —The Convention has met Ninety six of the delegates are present

The Public Debt

The public debt statements shows a decrease during the month, of three quarters of a million The total debt is now $2 481,030,141.

HAVANA, Nov 4.—The British Consul has received advice from St Thomas that all the property of the Royal Mail Steamship Company was destroyed by a terrible tornado Oct 29th Five steamers were lost and the town of St Thomas was made a complete ruin Fifty vessels were driven ashore The loss of life is very great and the destruction of property immense All the officers of the steamer and all on board, were lost The regular steamer for Southampton, sailed with 150 passengers, only twelve of whom were saved

From Mexico

Havana advices from Mexico say a revolution is momentarily expected for the overthrow of Juarez.

Advices from Vera Cruz say the Government refuses to receive the diplomatic representatives of all the powers not recognising the Republic

Santa Anna and his wife had arrived en route for St Thomas The Court which tried him has been imprisoned for acquitting him

The remains of Maximilian had not been sent to Vera Cruz

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON Nov 6 —Parliament is called to re-assemble on the 19th of November

The first squadron for the Abyssinian expedition has left Egypt for Abyssinia The Viceroy of Egypt has offered to assist England and sent a corps of natives to join the British forces.

Edward James, member of Parliament from Manchester, died at Madrid

A royal proclamation has been issued permitting the return of political exiles to Spain and remitting their penalties.

A serious bread riot occurred at Exeter, yesterday and to-day Every meat and bread shop in the city was sacked At the date of the last dispatch, incendiary fires were breaking out at different places of the town and there was much excitement

The authorities had applied to the Government for the troops to quell the disturbance

—LONDON, Nov 4—Noon —Riots which occurred at several points have been suppressed

BOSTON, Nov 5 —The bread riots have extended to Axminster, where the grain warehouses were sacked Axminster is the location of several extensive factories The rioting men are numerous and determined. Quiet has not yet been restored at Axminster or Exeter

PARIS, Nov 4 —The Moniteur published the particulars of the battle near Tivoli. 80,000 insurgents were slightly killed, wounded or made prisoners. Garibaldi and his son, Menotti, were captured and sent to Florence as prisoners of war 40,000 Garibaldians were marched to reinforce the insurgents, but were met, dispersed and turned back. The greatest agitation prevails through out Italy

The ultimatum of Napoleon will be announced by next Thursday

PARIS, Nov 4.—Dispatches from Rome this morning say the Papal troops, supported by the French attacked Garibaldi at Monterondo and defeated him Some say Garibaldi is killed; another account says he retreated and was pursued to the Italian troops

La Marmora who had been here on a secret mission, the nature of which is not divulged has returned to Florence, having accomplished the object of his mission

The ultimatum of Napoleon was presented to the Italian Government on Sunday A reply was demanded

Garibaldi arrived at Speenta, on board an Italian man of war as prisoner of the Italian Government. It is believed that the defeat of Garibaldi causes the ultimatum

VIENNA, Nov 5.—In a debate in the Diet VonTrauenfeldt declared the policy of Napoleon and Francis Joseph to be the same.

New York cable specials give details of the battle of Tivoli. Garibaldi's rout was complete. It is said he lost 900 killed and 1,000 wounded All the Italians surrendered to the Italian regular troops No French took part in the battle. It is reported at Florence that Garibaldi's mind is affected

A SPECIFIC FOR THROAT DISEASES.—"My communication with the world is very much enlarged by the Lozenge, which I now carry always in my pocket; that trouble in my throat (for which the 'Troches are a specific) having made me often a mere whisperer." N P WILLIS

Hoarseness, Cough, Cold, an Irritation or Soreness of the Throat, "Brown's Bronchial Troches" will often give instant relief.

THE WIRES BEING DOWN, we are left utterly in doubt whether the election in New York, Pennsylvania, and other States, have gone Republican or Democratic. It makes no difference, politically, how these States have gone, as long as our State is yet blessed with a Clothing House that the public can rely on, and always be suited with the best goods at the lowest prices, be it a fine Dress Suit, or a common Business Suit, a fine Silk Dress or a paper of Pins, which you wish to purchase, you will be treated equally as well, at KOHN & FISHEL S, No. 91 Front street

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practiced but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the prospect of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, used only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation

And now, while he does not deny that he is now and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a right to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other effort to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c of SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county

ALEXANDER P WARNER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing Had been treated by various physicians during all that time without effect

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea

H B MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes A bad case for over fifteen years

ROBERT RAMSEY and W D PORTER, of Harrisburg. JOHN M HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. H WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—We clip the following items from the Oregon City Enterprise:

A new term commenced at the Seminary on last Monday. The last term was very satisfactory. The average attendence for the term was 135, the aggregate being 182 ..... We hear of a farmer in the western part of this county who this season raised 300 bushels of potatoes from three-fourths of an acre. One large one, about the size of a man's head, it was estimated would weigh six pounds ..... The Senator is now at her berth in this city, under charge of Mr. Thomas Barry. Mr Murray is putting her under a thorough coat of paint, and when she sails again she will not only swim like a duck, but will hold a striking likeness in appearance to a new boy .. Mr. C Deardorff, of this county, this year produced from two and a half acres of ground, 70 bushels of as fine buckwheat as ever grew. In fact it has done more than that, 31 measured bushels weighed 48 at the mill, and gave 1045 lbs of flour. This flour was sold by the 100 lbs at 6 cents. The proceeds of the two and a half acres, deducting expenses, would probably fall not far short of $120 On..... The Circuit Court for the county of Clackamas, adjourned on Thursday. Some business went over. The principal causes tried this week were, the State vs. J. K. Walsh, indictment for assault with intent to kill, verdict not guilty. State vs. Burchardt, the same cause and result. State vs. Dingman; indictment for seduction; verdict guilty, and defendant fined $500 and costs, with little enough punishment. Probably if the defendant had not a young and forgiving wife, and an indulgent father-in law, he might have stood a show at serving the State a term at Salem.

DOWN THE RIVER.—A friend who has just returned from a trip down the river, furnishes us the following information concerning "matters and things" at Monticello and St. Helens: "At Monticello the citizens are about completing a large building of two stories, the upper floor of which is for the Good Templars hall and the lower for stores. The Cowlitz river steamer, Rainier, is very popular among the settlers along the river and on the coast. She left Freeport on Thursday morning for Cowlitz landing and way points ..... Prospectors have lately discovered beds of iron ore near Rainier, on the Columbia. ..... The fine mills of Abbott, Bybee & Co., at St. Helens, are turning out 10,000 to 12,000 feet of lumber per day and they have a second engine erected for a patent planer and edger, while at the same time the Company are erecting new dormitory and cabin apartments near the mill, for the benefit of all concerned. The Company have one hundred thousand feet of lumber on the dock ready to ship. Things are looking quite healthy around town .. Victor's Salt Works, suspended for a few weeks, are to be shafted for stronger brine, and it is hoped they will run clear salt. The railroad survey across the Willamette Slough, from Scappoose to St. Helens, was a success. The knowing ones there predict an aspect much prosperity from projects not yet made public ..... We are informed that a spring flowing pure tar, was lately discovered some fifteen miles below St. Helens. Singular, if true, and lucky, too, that so combustible a substance is not a mile distance from the rising city. The iron mines there are in statu quo."

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—The Register has the following items: This is the third week that our District Court has been in session, and it has not yet at this time, Thursday afternoon, adjourned ..... More than usual interest was taken in the election on Monday last. Yet the highest number of votes cast for any two opposing candidates, as may be seen was 172, while the entire vote of the city is known to be not less than 200. The following persons were elected: A. G. Tripp, Mayor, received 82 votes; C. M. Fletcher, 133 votes; J. Eldridge, 120; J. [illegible] 158; B. F. Preston, 132; O. W. Durgan, [illegible] 124; M. Winther, 111; Recorder—A. [illegible], 95 votes. Treasurer—C. Hazard, 167 votes. S. R. Whipple, 106 votes. The following persons were installed as officers of Columbia Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., on last Wednesday evening: [illegible] Hill, N. G.; Mrs. Atwood, V. G.; T. J. [illegible] W. S.; Charles H. H. Leonard, W. M.; Mary [illegible], W. I. G.; Mrs Brent, W. R. H. S.; Miss Biers, W. L. H. S.; Ada Baker, W. A. S.; Mrs. Connell, W. D. S.; [illegible], W. C.; C. F. Short, P. W. C. T. ..... The following persons were installed officers of Lincoln Lodge No. 1, I. O. G. T., on Tuesday evening: [illegible], W. C. T., Miss Jenny Rankin, W. V. T., U. [illegible], W. S.; Mrs. Ada Miller, W. T.; Bro. Downing, W. F. S.; Bro. Glenday, W. M., Mrs. L. Ingram, W. D. M.; Miss Ida Fox, W. I. G., Bro. Michales, W. O. S.; [illegible], W. C.; A. Rankin, R. S.; James Orr, P. W. C. T. The lodges of this place are receiving accessions weekly and prospering generally.

MARRIED AND BEING GIVEN IN MARRIAGE.—In the course of an idle curiosity, we were looking over the list, in the County Clerk's office, of persons who have procured license to get married, within the last two years. The following is the result of our observations: In the year 1866 there were [illegible] 96 licenses. Two of them were issued to one person and returned "not wanted." Lang Chung, a bachelor of the Chinese persuasion, bought them for the purpose, it is said, of making Sing Moy boss of his house, etc., and, with the same intent as regarded Miss Wing. Moy refused and nearly busted Mr. Chung's ground. Chung's ground, however, got wall and then he offered to share his rice bowl and chop-sticks with Miss Wing. Miss Wing folded her wings around Mr. Chung and promised to be his; but then things came to the scratch she spread her wings and flighted away with another fellow. Mr. Chung took the several licenses back, each time with the remark, "No wantee him; you no wantee me no pay; me no hab got um woman." The clerk blush took them off Mr. Chung's hands and Mr. Chung is still a gay bachelor. The greatest number of [illegible], were issued in October; the smallest number, four, in February. In 1867, to date, 87 licenses have been issued. The least month for marrying, this year, was March, during which thirteen licenses were [illegible]. Thus far, in this month only three licenses have been [illegible].

THE DAILY CONDUCT.—The city ordinance providing for disorderly conduct has always been found [illegible], and through its meshes many an aggravated case of loud and obscene talking on the street, has [illegible] away from richly merited punishment. During the last year it has been next to impossible to convict any body of disorderly conduct where the offence charged [illegible] of the use of abusive or obscene words. All the [illegible] had to do was to forward a jury, and "go it." At the last meeting of the council, however, this [illegible] was blocked, by the [illegible] of an ordinance that will probably astonish somebody the first time they try on the old dodge. The ordinance provides a penalty for section 1 of ordinance No. 228. The following is the text of the section as now in force:

Section 1. That any person or persons who shall be guilty of any violent, riotous or disorderly conduct or shall use any abusive or obscene language in any street, alley or place whereby the peace and quiet of the city shall or may be disturbed, or who shall be guilty of any lewd or improper practice, shall, on conviction thereof before the Recorder, be subject to a penalty of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars.

CIRCUS TO-NIGHT.—Bartholomew's circus troupe will [illegible] to-night at their pavilion in the rear of Oro Fino Hall. The following is a list of the performers, some of [illegible] are already well known in this city: Mr. Geo. Bartholomew, horse trainer and bare back rider; Master Bloch, bare back rider and globe equilibrist, Mr. Ned Ward, in perche performer and gymnast; Mr Charles Reed, acrobat and gymnast; Major Gen Silas, (supposed to be the smallest person in the world, age 16 years, height 30 inches, weight 30 lbs) in his astonishing feats of strength and agility; Mr. Wm Franklin, somersault rider; Mr. G. Sprague, gymnast, Mr. N. Bartholomew, ring master, trick and performing clown; Charley Graham, 50-dispearsan clown and jester. For programmes of performances, call small bills. The proprietor assures us that no pains will be spared to make the ground and seats thoroughly dry; so that no one need to stay away on the score of [illegible].

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of [illegible]: Thos. Ward, assault and battery upon [illegible], fined $50 and costs. E. Danton and Chambers, [illegible] with assault and battery upon Henry Fleckenstein, were [illegible] charged, under a compromise between the [illegible], and the costs were taxed against the complainants. Wm. Lake, assault and battery, fined $50 and costs, and in default of payment, was sent to jail for 25 days. The charge against Henry Fleckenstein, assault with a dangerous weapon, dismissed and costs charged to [illegible].

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUSTICE.—Proceedings of Friday, Nov. 8th:

Grand Jury returned true bills against T. J. Calloway and Wm. Dollinger, for violations of the revenue law.

United States vs. T. J. Calloway; defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

United States vs H. Hartlieb; dismissed.

United States vs. A. Mercer, et. al., evidence for defense presented; cause argued and submitted to jury.

THEATRICAL CELEBRITIES.—Most theater goers will remember John S. Potter and Caroline Chapman, both of whom were long connected with the stage in San Francisco and Portland. Through a gentleman recently from the States, we learn that the former died at Julesburg on the 30th ultimo, from the rupture of a blood vessel of the lungs. The latter committed suicide by poisoning, at Council Bluffs. She was the wife of a man named Nichols, but had deserted him and was living with another man, a prize fighter.

COURTS' COURT.—The following are the proceedings of yesterday in the county court:

R S Perkins vs. Frank Soule, judgment against defendant for $200.

J. Carlin vs. J. Knott, set for trial at 1 o'clock P M. to-day.

In the matter of the estate of Sophia Holman dec'd, semi-annual account of administratrix filed.

FREIGHT FROM BELOW.—The steamer Ranger arrived from Monticello and intermediate landings late Thursday night, with the following freights: 8,000 feet lumber, 14 sks onions, 2 coops chickens, 2 beeves, 50 head of sheep, 236 gunnies of potatoes. Ninety gunnies were for Capt. Holman, who will bring up on her next trip the balance of 4,000 bushels. The Ranger also brought 13 passengers and several lots of way freight.

PRESENTATION.—We learn that on Thursday evening, Protection Engine Co presented to Multnomah Engine Co. a beautiful hat front-piece or shield on which was inscribed the inscription, "From Protection Engine Co No 4 to Multnomah Engine Co No 2." The piece is, of course, only designed for an ornament, and to express the good will which the one company has for the other.

CONSTABLE APPOINTED.—The county commissioners yesterday appointed Isaac Wagoner, constable for South Portland precinct. He was appointed once before but failed to qualify, and is now re-appointed on petition from his precinct.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—Arrived per steamer Alert from Oregon City, yesterday, 2 bales woolen goods, 551 qr sks flour, 229 bags wheat, 107 sks barley, 210 sks bran, 31 sks feed, 2 boxes fruit, 1 box midse, 130 boxes apples.

THE "CALIFORNIA."—A telegram from Victoria, last evening, says: "California arrived at Victoria yesterday morning (Thursday); sails for San Francisco via Portland.

FAILED TO AGREE.—At 10 o'clock this morning Judge Deady discharged the jury in the case of the United States vs Mercer and others, the jury being unable to agree. It was reported that they stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal.

TO SAIL.—The steamship Fidelity, M C Erskine, Commander, will sail this morning at six o'clock, for Victoria, with a full cargo of produce.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court for Multnomah county, Judge Shattuck presiding, will convene on Monday next.

SEASON CALLED.—A member of the Athletic Club wishes us to say that, "The Athletic Club has called the season."

BARMAN BROS offer to the public at San Francisco prices a large invoice of Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas.

UNDERSTANDS HIS BUSINESS.—One of the truest things Horace Greeley ever said was, "The merchant who pays more for shop rent than for advertising, does not understand his business." Horace did not mean John Wilson, who has an extensive stock of winter goods at No 125 Front street, and, judging from the way he advertises, wants everybody and "the rest of mankind" to know it. Please turn to his advertisement and read it.

EDUCATIONAL.—The second quarter of St. Joseph's Academy will open on Monday next. The terms of tuition are liberal and the teachers are reputed to be eminently competent.

PICTURES.—Those in want of a beautiful and appropriate present for the coming holidays, can be at no loss where to procure it if they have lately visited the Music and Art Gallery of Mr. W. T. Shanahan, on First street. He has an immense collection of fine pictures from which to make selections, to say nothing of the great variety of musical instruments, music, etc., etc. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever"—go to Shanahan's for any "thing of beauty." It would make any reasonable person happy for a week to take a good look through his splendidly adorned gallery.

DISSOLUTION AND REMOVAL.—The co-partnership between Drs Chapman & Watkins, has been dissolved and Dr Watkins has established his office on Front street, over Milwain & Jovnts store, formerly occupied by Dr Gilman. Dr W. enjoys an enviable reputation as a skillful and successful practitioner.

A LOST POODLE.—Johnny Graham's poodle dog "Esmeralda" was lost or stolen last Tuesday. It may be easily identified from having its nose and fore paws trimmed. Who ever knows anything of it would confer a special favor by returning it, or giving information of its whereabouts, to Johnny Graham.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M Bullock, President. C W Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

The Proprietor of the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public in general, that from this date, and during the oyster season, he will keep his establishment open at eight until 2 o'clock A. M., and will serve Oysters and Suppers in every style. PIERRE MANGIOT.

GOOD FOR OREGON.—Another source of revenue to the State has been created. We notice several shipments of Hensley's Royal Balsam to California, and as soon as the bottles can be manufactured a large order will be filled from New York. The curative properties of this medicine are appreciated abroad as well as at home. See the certificates of several prominent citizens of the State on fourth page.

Notice.—At a Regular Meeting of Willamette Fire Engine Co., No. 1, held on Thursday evening, Nov 7th, 1867, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Willamette Fire Engine Co., No. 1, hereby nominate W. H WEED as our first choice for Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department at the ensuing election. ED. F. ALBRIGHT,

THE GLORY OF MANHOOD STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

DR. C. W. COOL

Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on

Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE; the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black, affecting in no small time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a-half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

Price for upper teeth, $50; full set, upper and lower, $75 00. oc31dtf

ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, of both sexes, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU. It will give brisk and energetic feelings, and enable you to sleep well.

REMOVED.

Dr. GLISAN has removed his Office to the Corner of Stark and Third streets. d3plm

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epileptic fits ensue.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE REMOVED TO THE Southwest corner of Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

Extracting Teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas.)

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

It is a real pleasure to us to speak favorably of this article, known almost universally to be a good and safe remedy for burns and other pains of the body. It is valuable not only for solds in the winter, but for various summer complaints, and should be in every family. This casualty which demands it may come unawares.—Christian Advocate.

PAIN KILLER, taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar, if desired, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough and Bronchitis, a few drops on sugar eaten, will be more effective than anything else. For Sore Throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain Killer and water and the relief is immediate and cure positive.

TAKE NO MORE UNPLEASANT AND UNSAFE REMEDIES for unpleasant and dangerous diseases. Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

DR HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous, they give a healthy tone to the system, relieve all nervous matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by Druggists and Dealers every where.

HODGE, CALEF & CO., Agents,

MANHOOD AND YOUTHFUL VIGOR are regained by HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

☞ Mothers who have Delicate Children, who are subject to Croup.—When your child goes to bed wheezing and coughing, you know not before morning Croup may set in, and before you can get a Physician your child may be beyond the reach of help. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM should always be kept in your house, and be given immediately when the first symptoms appear, which will remove the mucus collected in the throat and save the life of your dear child.—Sold by dealers in family medicines generally.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action and free from all injurious properties.

Charles Kingsley on the English Rich and Poor.

Three lectures by Charles Kingsley, headed "Caste," "Centralization," and the "Explosive Forces," are just published in a volume.

There are only two classes in England, says Mr. Kingsley, the rich and the poor. Those who live by capital (from the wealthiest landlord to the smallest village shopkeeper,) and those who live by handlabor. Whether the division between these two classes is increasing or not, is a very serious question. Continued legislation in favor of the hand laborer, and a beneficence toward him, when in need, such as no other nation on earth has ever shown, have done much to abolish the moral division. But the social division has surely been increased during the last half century, by the inevitable tendency, both in commerce and agriculture, to employ one large capital, where several small ones would have been employed a century ago. The large manufactory, the large shop, the large estate, the large farm, swallows up the small ones. The yeoman, the thrifty squatter who could work at two or three different trades as well as till his patch of moor, the hand-loom weaver, the skilled village craftsman, have all but disappeared. The hand-worker, finding it more and more difficult to invest his savings, has been more and more tempted to squander them. To rise to the dignity of a capitalist, however small, was growing impossible to him, till the rise of that co-operative movement, which will do more than any social and political impulse in our day for the safety of English society and the loyalty of the English working classes. And meanwhile are that movement shall have spread throughout the length and breadth of the land, and have been applied, as it surely will be some day, not only to distribution, but only to manufacture, but to agriculture likewise—till then, the best judges of the workman's worth must be their employers; and [illegible] the employers of the northern manufacturing population. What their judgment is, is a [illegible] notorious. Those who depend most on the workmen, who have the best opportunity of knowing them, trust them most thoroughly.

As long as great manufacturers stand forward as the political sponsors of their own workmen, it behooves those who cannot have had their experience, to consider their experience as conclusive. As for that "influence of the higher classes," which is said to be endangered just now, it will exist, just as much as it deserves to exist. Any man who is superior to the many, whether in talent, education, refinement, wealth, or anything else, will always be able to influence a number of men—and if he thinks it worth his while, of votes—by just and lawful means. And as for unjust and unlawful means, let those who prefer them keep up his gift. The world would go on much as it did before, and be always quite bad enough to allow bribery and corruption, jobbery and nepotism, quackery and arrogance, their full influence, over our home and foreign policy. An extension of the suffrage, however wide, will not bring about the full reform. It will only make a large number of Englishmen contented and loyal, instead of discontented and disloyal. It may make, too, the educated and wealthy classes wiser by awakening wholesome fear; perhaps, it may be, by awakening a chivalrous emulation. It may put the younger men of the present aristocracy upon their mettle, and stir them up to prove that they are not in the same effete condition as was the French nobility in 1789.

Again: Behind all classes and social forces [illegible] and above all—stands a fourth estate, which will ultimately decide the form which English society is to take: a press as different from the literary slime of the ancient regime as it is everything else English; and different in this that it is free. The French revolution like every revolution (it seems to me), which has convulsed the nations of Europe for the last 80 years, was [illegible] immediately—whatever may have been its ulterior results—by the suppression of thought; or, at least, by a sense of wrong among those who thought. A country where every man, be he a fool or wise, is free to [illegible] which is in him, can [illegible] for a revolution. The folly takes off like steam, in harmless noise; the wisdom [illegible] part of the general intellectual stock of the nation, and prepares men for gradual, and therefore [illegible] change.

As long as the press is free a nation is guaranteed against sudden and capricious folly, either from above or from below. As long as the press is free a nation is guaranteed against the worse evil of persistent and obstinate folly, cloaking itself under the venerable shapes of tradition and authority. For under a free press a public must finally be guided not by a caste, not by a class, not by the passions of a mob, but by reason; by the best wit of all the common sense of its members, and the practical wisdom of genius, which is usually common sense organized to be the only, if not the best, [illegible] for possible unity.

The [illegible] at St. [illegible] accomplished by Napoleon [illegible]. The French people are what [illegible] it.

Why is a sharp [illegible] like a dull one? Because one sharpens [illegible], and the [illegible] shaves thoroughly.

[illegible] an appreciative city; 66 at Stukes and [illegible] 1 less than a.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Sunday Review.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, Nov. 8, 1867.

Our last New York quotation of gold was under date of Wednesday, when it was at 140¾. For two or three days we have had no dispatches from San Francisco, the cable having thrown the line down. At last accounts, legal tenders were dull at 73¼, buying, and 73, selling. In this last, there is [illegible] the complaint at the scarcity of money than for many months. A somewhat [illegible] has [illegible] the merchants of the [illegible] regions to settle up many of their bills of long standing and to buy liberally, cash down or on short time. The Willamette valley has been particularly favored by the brisk fall trade and good prices for produce, and as a consequence, the valley merchants are less than usual in debt to Portland market. Sugar [illegible] to this week, [illegible] of the crops of this valley who have been [illegible] their [illegible] in the mines, are now returning with [illegible] amounts of treasure which soon finds its way into [illegible] coffers. These conditions combined serve to [illegible] the [illegible] money market easy.

[illegible] are very few changes to note in the condition of the [illegible] market. Prices of all [illegible] articles remain [illegible] the figures of last week, and the [illegible] of business just about equal to those of the week [illegible] November 1st.

The exports of produce for the week were all included in the freight lists of the Cosby, for Victoria, which took [illegible] flour, 1,440 qr sks, and of wheat, 356 [illegible] tons, and the Sierra Nevada, for San Francisco, which took about 13,000 qr sks flour and 1,284 bush. oats. The prices of these two products are unchanged. On [illegible] Pacific coast wheat was quoted in New York at $3 @@ 25, steady; flour, dull, at $13 25. On the same day a decline of 6d was reported from Liverpool. The [illegible] of the political [illegible] from Europe, [illegible] the complaint and probable war, serve, [illegible], to depress the [illegible] of bids and breadstuffs on this side and prices have not weakened in answer to the decline in Liverpool. The shipments of wheat from San Francisco, for the month of October, foot up 228,926 bags, valued at $1,103,890. The shipments of flour for the same period, amounted to 31,123 bbls, valued at $[illegible], 141.

Rates are [illegible] prices unchanged; sales, moderate. An increase in mails has been expected, but as yet no advices warranting a change in quotations, have been received; they are, however, very firm at the old prices.

Coffee's trade very active. Sandwich Island sugar is a little hardened in price.

Oils: Davis's burning, is 2½ to 7½c lower; other brands of kerosene, about 2½c lower.

Dry Goods are much broken and trade has suffered [illegible] considerably in consequence of the inability of dealers to form out complete [illegible] stocks. There is still a good demand for domestic woolen goods at current quotations. Stocks on hand are limited.

MR. EDITOR:—You doubtless remember that some time since the Portland Philharmonic Society gave a concert for the benefit of the poor of this city. Soon after the concert, the Society carefully counted up the matter, in order to determine the best manner in which to distribute the funds realized therefrom; giving the whole amount to any one benevolent society was very strongly opposed, and giving it by apportionment to the several societies in this city was deemed impracticable, because unable to ascertain the proportionate relief afforded the city poor by the respective societies. Investigation of the subject gave rise to the belief that Portland ought to have a benevolent association representing the whole city, and in which every citizen would feel especially interested; and finally upon such a basis that it would prove to be the almoner of Portland in the matter of supplying the wants and relieving the necessities of its indigent citizens; and a resolution was unanimously passed asking the citizens at large to organize an association of the character, and the sum before mentioned was to be paid to such association when organized. Considerable time has now elapsed without any action in the premises, and this society has decided to place the money where it can be of service used for the purpose designed, and to this end appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. S J. McCormick, P. C. Schuyler, jr., and Jacob Mayer, to disburse the said funds, now amounting to four hundred and sixty (460) dollars including interest.

S. J. McCORMICK, President.

EDW. QUACKENBUSH, Secretary Portland Philharmonic Society.

The Committee appointed by the Philharmonic Society to disburse the proceeds of the Concert given by the Society for the benefit of the poor of the city, would state that they are prepared to take cognizance of cases of distress requiring charitable aid, irrespective of creed or condition, and will be thankful to citizens who will bring such cases to the notice of either of the undersigned.

COUGHS, COLDS,

Bronchitis,

ALL DISEASES

OF THE

Chest and Lungs.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give prompt relief when timely used; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon:

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I feel it but a duty to [illegible] you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife. She had been [illegible] with a severe cough for several weeks, which had [illegible] a dangerous nature, for which many days' time have been trying without any material benefit, and all that [illegible] failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her [illegible] condition. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr. Rendell, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; as all other [illegible] having failed, I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles. Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and on the [illegible] bottle, and a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle [illegible] was cheerful. In fact it was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual; hence, I have no hesitation in [illegible] recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that [illegible] of such great merit, and I might say [illegible], is not generally known. My candid opinion is, if [illegible] were [illegible] once, they never be without it in the house.

Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H. COPPOCK.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 18, 1867.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for I have had a great many with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam, and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured. I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity, through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,

WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some as directed and soon in the morning, the first was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.

Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN.

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale, but Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases whom nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction.

BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City.

From W. F. Barber.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which on several afflicted with the same disease, has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease.

I am Yours truly,
W. F. BARBER.

From J. H. Morril.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now a days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I was afflicted with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time, I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast, all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had almost immediate effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody, my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it, I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial.

I remain yours, truly,
J. H. MORRIL.
